Art Cibrian, Lead Vocals/Rhythm Guitar

Art began his career singing as a teen in church competitions in talent contests. As age 18, he started playing Bluegrass. A decade later he was approached by Chuck Mabe to front the band "Stage Cru". By the late 90's, Art moved to New Jersey where he put together 2 bands "Shore Country" (an all country band) and the original "One Eyed Jacks" (a classic rock band). With Y2K, Art returned to Maryland and met up with Terry Bostic and Jackie Pennington and fronted for the band "Street Survivors" (a southern rock band) for the next 10 years.

Turning full circle, he and Chuck Mabe reunited in 2012 as the new "One Eyed Jacks".

Troy "Punk" Kelley, Lead Guitar/Vocals

Punk Kelley is originally from the Mount Vernon area of Washington D.C. He has been playing guitar and building guitars for almost 40 years. In high school, he was in a band named "Troy" and from there he has been in several other bands over the past 20 years. He has played in venues up and down the east coast. His influences include Stevie Ray Vaughn, Eric Clapton and Jimi Hendrix. He is a tone junky and currently plays a Vox AC15 for clean and a Marshall DSL 100 for solos and includes analog delay pedals in his signal chain for the best tone.

Roy Levine, Bass Guitar/Vocals

Roy has been a professional musician for over 35 years. Originally from the Washington, DC area, after many years of lessons and practice, he began his music career working with local bands at private parties, weddings and bar mitzvahs. He later moved to Cumberland, Maryland where he became the weekend and special events pianist at Rocky Gap Resort and Lodge. During his 27 years living in Western Maryland, Roy continued his study of music at West Virginia University and performed solo or with bands throughout the region. In addition to his solo piano and full band performances, he enjoys playing acoustic guitar at coffee houses, restaurants and lounges. Roy is currently from Bel Air, Maryland.

Chuck Mabe, Drummer

At the age of 14, Chuck began playing music at his church and played in a religious band until he was out of school.

Over the years he played in several rock & roll bands including both "Stage Cru" and "Rio Bravo".

It was when Chuck formed a country band called "Stage Cru" that he met Art Cibrian and now they both continue to play together in the "One Eyed Jacks" band.
